

Highlights of the Research

The work presented within the publication provides

- i. A primary experimental evaluation of vitamin A and E in commercial infant foods in the UK.
- ii. Evidence of excessive intakes of vitamin A and E from a standardised menu.
- iii. Total daily intakes of vitamins referenced to recommended intakes.
- iv. Potential cause for concern over deficiency when milk intake is reduced.