

EveningStandard.

Comment › ES Views

ES Views:

Twitter: @ESTheReader

Email: thereader@standard.co.uk

- Monday 29 October 2018 12:09

Wireless control

THE desire by Haringey council to prevent festival crime and reduce disturbances is laudable [“Clean up your acts, Wireless artists told,” October 24]. However, this bid to dictate what artists can say or wear sets a bad precedent. Local authorities cannot be guardians of taste. Policing is not an excuse to stop freedom of expression.

Peter Vlachos
University of Greenwich