Dear Colleague,

Welcome to Sunbelt XXXV International Social Network Conference! Your registration package consists of this printed program, a name tag, tickets for the banquet and/or workshops if you registered for them. Abstracts are available on the conference website: www.insna.org/sunbelt2015

Please review this program carefully as it contains some last minute changes. Any further changes will be posted as necessary at the registration desk.

There are some "Sunbelt" traditions of which you should be aware.

- Presentations are to stop and start at the stated times as persons often session hop to catch papers of interest and, by the way, it is okay to session hop yourself.
- If you are presenting, please load your presentation on the dedicated laptop connected to the projector before the session starts. If you need your own laptop, connecting it will eat into your presentation time.
- Where there is no named session chair, the last presenter in the session chairs the session under the assumption that he or she will have an incentive to keep other session presenters on time. If the named chair is not present, those presenting should select one of their own to keep time.
- Lunch time is long enough so you can walk the pier, take a swim, go wind surfing, or do other sunbelty things.
- There is a hospitality suite Wednesday through Saturday evening from 9pm to 12am. We ask that you cooperate with our student assistants managing the suite so it can close up at 12am.

If you have questions about the conference, seek out the organisers or their assistants. We may be able to help. We are glad you are here and hope your experience is enjoyable and intellectually valuable.

Tom received a B.S. in Mathematics from Mary Washington College, an M.S. in Mass Communication from San Diego State University, and a Ph.D. from the Annenberg School for Communication at the University of Southern California. He spent nine years at the Johns Hopkins University School of Public Health from 1991 to 2000 conducting research and teaching health communication, program evaluation, and network analysis before moving to the Department of Preventive Medicine at the University of Southern California. Tom uses social networks to conduct research on substance abuse prevention, treatment programs, and on the evaluation of health promotion programs. In addition he uses social networks to understand how policy is developed at the local and global level. He is the author of three books and over one hundred and forty journal articles and book chapters. He is well known for developing the social network threshold diffusion model and for his work on network based interventions to enable behaviour change. His last book was entitled Social Networks and Health, an area he has made his own.
