

Information and Computer Sciences

the
UNIVERSITY of GREENWICH

HIGHER EDUCATION ACADEMY/UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH

E TEACHING AND LEARNING WORKSHOP 2009

E CENTRE – KING WILLIAM 302

2ND JUNE 2009

PROGRAMME

09.00 – 09.30 Registration and coffee, setting up of posters

09.30 – 10.00 Welcome and keynote address.

General Issues (state of the art, e-Learning standards, learning objects and repositories, digital games)

10.00 – 10.30 An investigation into on-line interactive feedback in Higher Education
Jason Williams, University of Wales Institute Cardiff

10.30 – 11.00 Does reflective writing practice improve programming skills?
Dafna Hardbattle, Ken Fisher & Peter Chalk, London Metropolitan University

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee and Interactive Posters

Technical Issues (knowledge management, multimedia and ICTs in education, collaborative learning/groupware)

11.30 – 12.00 Screencasting as a vehicle for learning and teaching
Martin Bush, London South Bank University

12.00 – 12.30 Managing Learning Resources – technical issues with learning objects, repositories and searching the semantic web.
Mike Brayshaw & Neil Gordon, University of Hull

Cont/d...

Information and Computer Sciences

Pedagogical and Didactic Issues

- 12.30 – 13.00 Making the technology fit the pedagogy.
Keith Beechener & Wendy Fisher, The Open University
- 13.00 – 14.00 LUNCH
- 14.00 – 14.30 A move towards personalised learning.
Robert Costello & Darren Mundy, University of Hull

Designing for Learning: The way forward?

- 14.30 – 15.00 Implementing reflective writing activities using mobile devices.
Michael Ghebru, London Metropolitan University
- 15.00 – 15.30 Coffee & Interactive Posters
- 15.30 – 16.00 Addressing the challenges of low ICT literacy in UK university students.
Richard Self, University of Derby
- 16.00 – 16.30 Keynote: Educational Development – are there nuts in that?
Simon Walker, University of Greenwich
- 16.30 – 17.00 Summing up, departure