

UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH GALLERIES

VISUALISING EDUCATION & RESEARCH

COLLECTIVE LANDSCAPE FUTURES: CITIZENSHIPS

- 27th April 2022
- 6:00pm - 8:00pm
- Stephen Lawrence Gallery

Collective Landscape Futures are a series of five roundtable discussions that explore the future of landscape and urban practice. Held as conversations between students, graduates, tutors and guests to discuss the relationship between landscape, and the interconnected issues of justice, belonging and the economic and environmental crises. Hosted by Anushka Athique and Roo Angell. Department of Landscape Architecture and Urbanism.

COLLECTIVE LANDSCAPE FUTURES: Citizenships

A roundtable discussion exploring practices and policies that can empower more diverse citizenships. Speakers include Kris Cullum-Fernandez, Meaghan Kombol, Paul McGann and Torange Khonsari.