

A child's story: perspectives and experiences of a Windrush generation

Charmaine Brown

Abstract

A child's story is a from a child's perspective and experiences of life as a 'Windrush generation' survivor. The story unravels from the 3-week voyage aboard the SS Ascania from Kingston Harbour, Jamaica to Southampton, UK in November 1964. Interviews conducted with a purposeful sample of women and children who had travelled on the SS Ascania, highlights the untold stories aboard the ship. Hubert Ellis's, role in bringing the family to the UK at one time is celebrated in an interview conducted by Jamaican TV documentary 'Hill an Gully Ride.'

References

Barrel Children of the Windrush Generation: Untold Story – Ideascopes Media documentary - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2ocvKJkd6J4>

Charmaine Brown - Grow Our Histories: Peckham Heritage Oral Histories
<https://soundcloud.com/south-london-gallery/charmaine-brown-grow-our-histories-peckham-heritage-oral-histories>

<https://peckhamheritage.org.uk/buy-our-book/>

Everton Wright - Evewright – Tilbury Bridge Walkway of Memories

<https://evewright.com/tilbury-bridge-walkway-of-memories>

National Archives – Windrush@75

<https://media.nationalarchives.gov.uk/index.php/windrush-at-75/>