

The Future of Ethics, Professionalism and Whistleblowing

The Future of Professionalism & Ethics

Australian Council of Professions, Members' Roundtable Forum

Melbourne, 20 November 2018

Dr Wim Vandekerckhove, University of Greenwich, UK

Contents

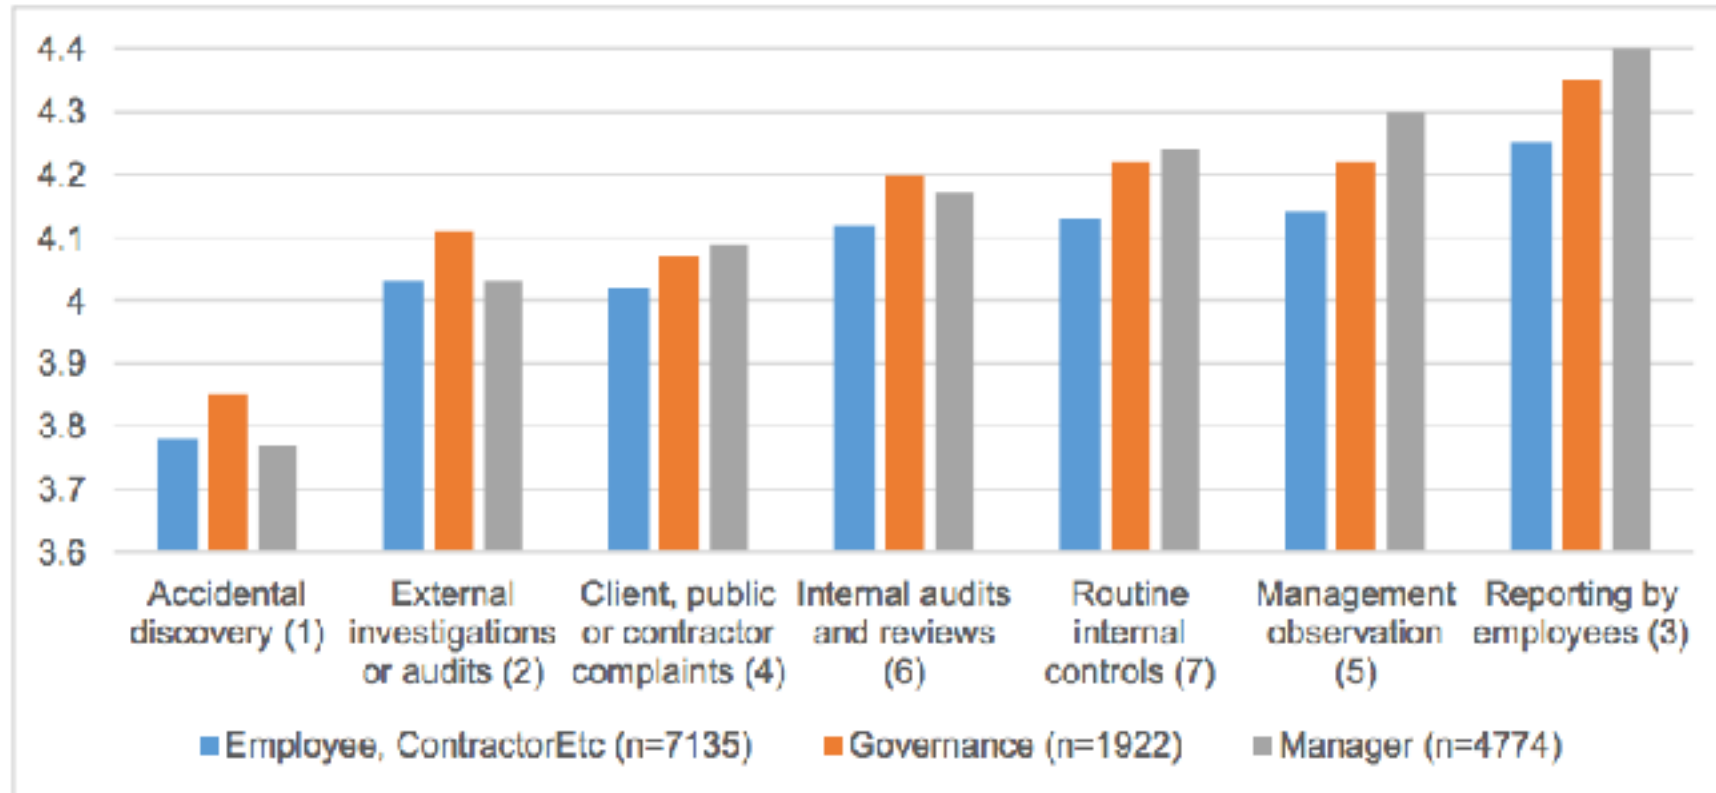

1. The onus is on the professional
2. Can the professional carry that burden?
3. What can professional bodies do to help their members?

The onus is on the professional

How did we get here?

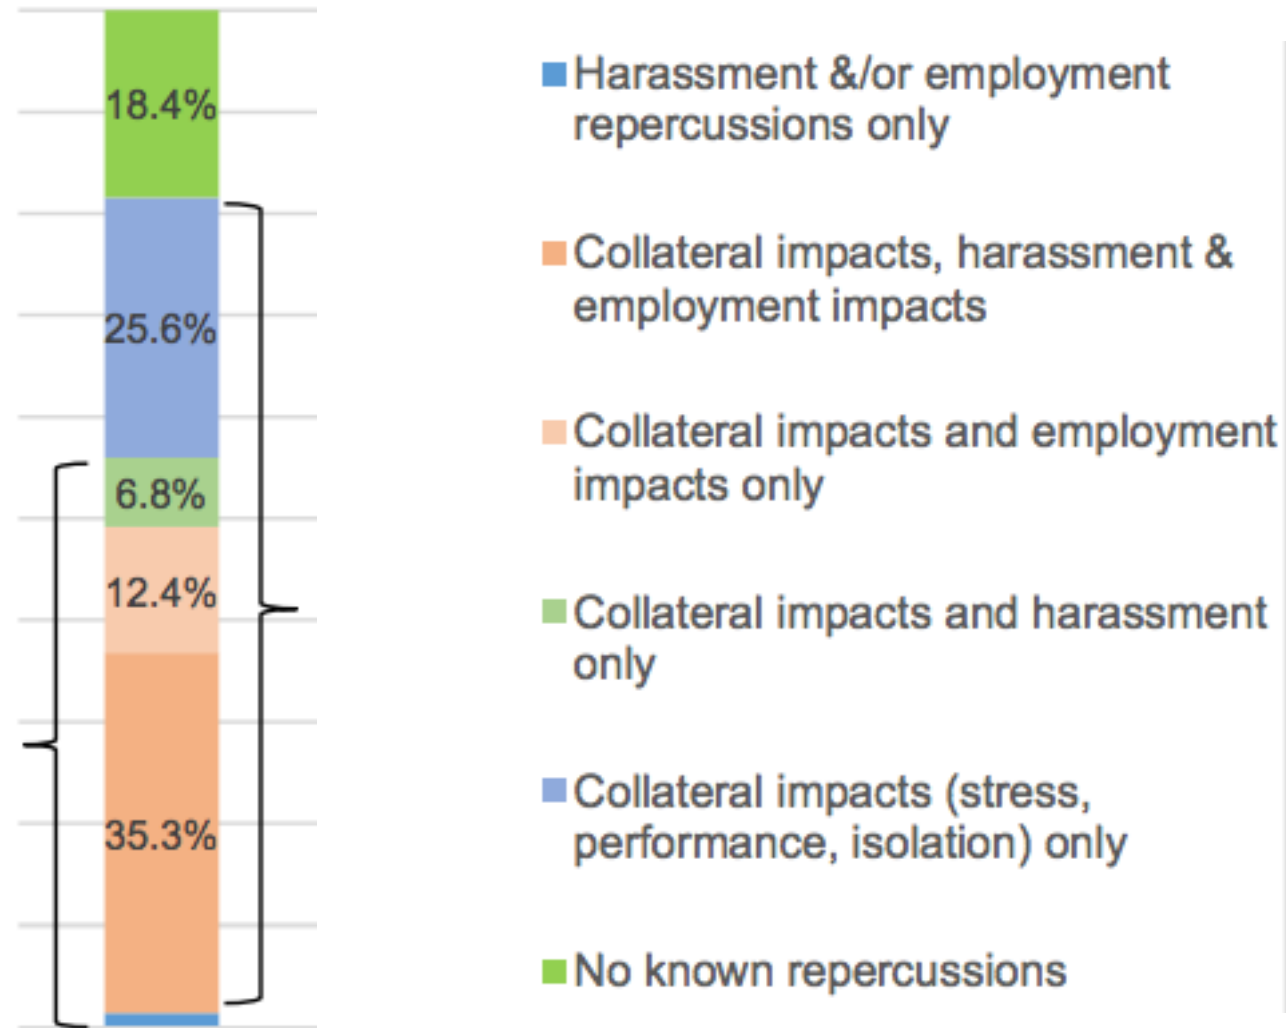

- Specialisation
- Expertise
- Inside knowledge

- Professionalism is a social institution

Brown, Olsen & Lawrence (2018). WWTW2 Working Paper 2.

Can the professional carry that burden?

Brown, Olsen & Lawrence (2018). WWTW2 Working Paper 2.

Whistleblowers face uncertainty & ambiguity

- Before
- During
- After

Figure 1. Questions people ask themselves before whistleblowing

Figure 2. Questions people ask themselves after reporting a concern

What can professional bodies do?

Figure 3. The value of independent advice

HUIS VOOR
KLOKKENLUIDERS

INTEGRITY
AT WORK

Promoting Ethical Workplaces

COUNCIL OF EUROPE

CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

CHANGE STARTS
HERE

Thank You.

Dr Wim Vandekerckhove